

Tassilo

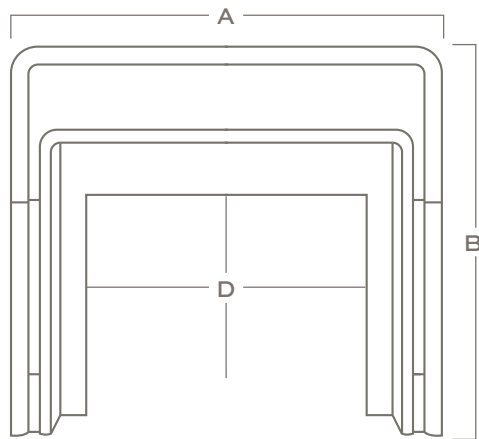

Edition No. 1-07

The Tassilo's defining bullnose profile feels refreshingly contemporary, creating a flowing curve of stone highlighting the poetry of carving from natural stone block. Compact and elegant, it brings chic sophistication to smaller spaces—like a finely engineered car, every line is purposeful and refined. The inner bullnose frames the fire as a glowing centerpiece. With options for a metal inlay and alternate stone for the upper mantel, this piece can be minimal or maximal – fashioned to complement any room.

Patent pending.
